

THE FALSE SPIRIT GUIDES

(Part III)

(Poem)

-by Brian Edwards

(Written May, 2018)

Sure.....

They'll tell you

They're your spirit guides

The false spirit guides

Will tell you just about anything

That you want to hear

They might

Make you think

They have wisdom

That they are bright

And enlightened

That they are from out there

From among the stars

From serene

And dreamlike astral planes

The false spirit guides

Will tell you

What you want to hear

That is.....

Until you find out

That they're the false kind

Of spirit guides

Then they'll

Be telling you

What you didn't want to hear

They'll be telling it to you

Around the clock

Throughout the night

The long.....long nights

The dark hours

Of the voices

That drag on and on

And then the dawn

But the voices

Don't really cease

But in the beginning

The false spirit guides

Will tell you

Just about anything

That you want to hear
